Eight select MFA students from FIU and UM -*

MIAMI – June 11, 2022 – The Bonnier Gallery Inc. is delighted to announce its inaugural MFA showcase, featuring eight artists from local graduate programs. Adhering to the gallery's dedication to local educational institutions as well as providing a platform for local students to enter the gallery space, the MFA show will remain a staple of the The Bonnier Gallery's programming every summer. The exhibition opens Saturday, June 11, with a reception from 7-10pm. On view through August 20, 2022. Free and open to the public.

The artists include four from the University of Miami: Talia Ceravolo, Nadine Hall, Charlisa Montrope, and Monica Leslie Travis; and four from Florida International University: John Colón, Max Eisenberg, Emma Ortiz, and Diego Waisman.

"We are so excited to work with and show the talent growing in our own backyard," says CEO Grant Bonnier. "The local MFA programs foster a curriculum of higher education and we want to participate as a community platform for these artists to begin their professional careers."

ABOUT THE BONNIER GALLERY

The Bonnier Gallery Inc. is an international commercial art gallery dealing in primary and secondary market works with a principal focus in minimalist and conceptual art including, though not limited to, painting, photography, sculpture, and mixed media, as well as publications of art and poetry. Through unique exhibitions, American and European art fairs, and scholarly catalogues, we seek to place our artists' work in a wide range of international private and museum collections. We also seek to promote the visual arts and literary arts in our community by contributing to local educational efforts and providing a public space that fosters a dialogue between artists and poets.
